

Financial Support

advice from people affected by dementia

Get financial and benefit advice

Support groups and dementia charities can provide information on finances and benefits and help with filling in the forms

Council tax reduction

If you have a dementia diagnosis and live with someone else, you may be eligible for a 25% reduction in your council tax

If you have a dementia diagnosis and live alone, you may be eligible for a 100% reduction in your council tax

Benefits

Common benefits claimed by people living with and affected by dementia are Attendance Allowance and Carers Allowance

Lasting Power of Attorney

Two types

- Health and welfare
- Property and financial affairs